

Children's Department.

A Word About Dresses, Beaver Hats, Eiderdown Sacques, Etc.

Many busy mothers have found our Infants' and Children's Dresses a great time-saver. They not only save time, but they avoid trouble and get more style than the average woman can put into a dress. We find, however, that a great many mothers hardly realize the importance of this department. To them we strongly urge a look through the store, now at its best.

Infants' and Children's Short and Long Dresses, with embroidered, tucked and lace yokes, made of cambric, nainsook and lawn. Prices, 50c to $5.00.

Misses' Dresses in wool, including chevrons, serges and cashmeres, in blue, red, brown, green and mixed novelties. Prices range from 98c to $7.98.

Children's Beaver Hats in two styles, in blue, black, red, white, mode and gray. Special prices for this lot: $1.75 Hats for $1.50 and $1.50 Hats for $1.39.

Silk Drop Skirts in navy, red and pink, with plaited and ruffled flounces. Price to close, $2.98. Value, $3.98 to $7.50.

Eiderdown Sacques and Robes.—A new shipment just received of the celebrated "Comfort Brand," revealing the latest tendencies for the price. Yes, there is genuine comfort here for a little money. Sacques in red, grey, pink and light blue. Prices, $1.00 to $5.00. Robes, $2.00 to $5.00.

The concert given Saturday evening by the Sturtevant Sisters Concert company was a rare musical treat, thoroughly enjoyed by the large number present. The program given was of a high order and showed the fine voices of the Sturtevant sisters to advantage. Irvin Potter's work as reader and impersonator won high praise. His selections were well chosen and rendered in a skillful manner. Altogether it is safe to say the entertainment was one of the best ever given in town.

Fatal Fire in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—One man was burned to death and five others severely injured during a fire which destroyed the large grain elevator of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company and the four story flour rolling mill of W. S. Woodward & Co. Harry McWilliams, who was at work on the roof of the Woodward building, was burned to death, and John B. Lyons, Daniel Murphy, Gustav B. Grinow, John Burns and John Myers were painfully injured by falling walls. The burned properties were located on the banks of the Schuylkill river between Race and Vine streets. The loss will probably reach over $200,000.

Dowie Getting Tired.

New York, Oct. 31.—Scarcely a dozen people, outside the members of the restoration host, were present for the early morning service in Madison Square Garden. Dowie seemed weary and instead of standing and walking about vigorously during his discourse, as in his usual custom, he remained seated in his chair while speaking. His subject was "Trine Immersion," being a dissertation on the proper method of baptism. He closed by exhorting all his hearers to come to the Sunday morning service when, according to his statement, fifty converts were to be baptized.

Morgan in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—J. Pierpont Morgan has arrived in Chicago. He was met at the depot by R. R.
